...what family physicians have said they want their CME to be.

For more than 26 years the AAFP Home Study program has delivered CME that's relevant, flexible, affordable, comprehensive and unbiased – what family physicians have said they want!

As a subscriber to FP Essentials or FP Audio, you'll receive peer-reviewed content every month that covers clinical topics tailored to meet the needs of busy family physicians. After submitting a brief test, you'll receive CME credit.
